

NEMI Announces Director Resignation

June 29, 2015 – Vancouver, BC, Canada. NEMI Northern Energy & Mining Inc. (CNSX: NNE) announced today that Mr. Todd Hooper has resigned from the Company's board of directors. NEMI's CEO, Michael Cooney, stated "We would like to thank Todd for his contribution to NEMI's board over the last six years, a time in which we have completely transformed NEMI from a typical struggling mining company to the healthy company it is today. NEMI has returned over $55 million to shareholders during Todd's service, a record that will be hard to beat."

This news release may include forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties. All statements within, other than statements of historical fact, are to be considered forward looking. Although the Company believes the expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, such statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from those in forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include market prices, exploitation and exploration successes, continued availability of capital and financing, and general economic, market or business conditions. There can be no assurances that such statements will prove accurate and, therefore, readers are advised to rely on their own evaluation of such uncertainties. We do not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements except as required under the applicable laws. We seek safe harbour.

For more information, please contact:

Michael Cooney
Chief Executive Officer
NEMI Northern Energy & Mining Inc.
(T) 415 339-8825
E-mail: mcooney@nemi-energy.com

NEMI Northern Energy & Mining Inc.
25th Floor – 700 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, BC V7Y 1B3